THE POWER OF PRAYER

G. Campbell Morgan

In the last conversation I had with my beloved and glorified friend, George MacGregor, we had been talking of the condition of the Church, of the condition of the world, of the need there was of some new power with which to deal with men, and suddenly rising from the chair in which he had been sitting, and pacing the room with that earnestness that characterized him, he said, "Morgan, I would rather train ten men to pray, than a hundred men to preach." At the moment, perhaps, I thought the expression superlative; I have become convinced that he was right. He did not minimize the value of preaching, but he had come to understand that the supreme need is that Christian people should be able to pray intelligently and prevailingly.

ALWAYS IN THE SPIRIT OF PRAYER

It is with prayer that I read your letters and say "Thank you" to Him for your gifts. As you read these letters from our Missionaries you will be thrilled with the accounts of their experiences, and reports of how prayer is being answered for them. They say "Thank you" to us in the office for our help when they receive their monthly checks, but dear friends, we cannot do it without you. You are the supply we are relying on, and we the "middleman." War conditions present many problems, but God is good. We are rejoicing particularly over the good news that Rev. and Mrs. John Kovalchuk have received concerning their daughter and son-in-law. Please continue your prayer for them, and for our other Missionaries as well. We have not had recent news from Dr. Juk and Rev. Stettler, but we believe they are continuing their good work . The mail is so slow, but funds are going through to them regularly, and we pray that they may continue their labors. In spite of the dark war clouds hanging heavily over us there is always some cause for rejoicing. Let us keep faith and keep praying. In this issue we are printing the full list of our Missionaries to aid you as you pray.

Are you forgetting my request for favorite hymns to be published in The European Harvest Field? I have received no special request for this time, and so want to share with you a favorite of mine, quite fitting as we "keep plugging" in our work:

Looking Upward Every Day
(Mary Butler, 1881)

Looking upward every day, Sunshine on our faces;
Pressing onward every day Toward the heavenly places;
Growing every day in awe, For thy Name is holy;
Learning every day to love With a love more lowly;

Walking every day more close To our Elder Brother;
Growing every day more true Unto one another;
Every day more gratefully Kindnesses receiving;
Every day more readily Injuries forgiving;

Leaving every day behind Something which might hinder;
Running swifter every day, Growing purer, kinder—
Lord, so pray we every day, Hear us in thy pity,
That we enter in at last To the holy city.

It is much easier to "keep going" than to start something, so we are endeavoring to continue the work of the American-European Fellowship, having faith to believe that although some of the doors are closed now there are great opportunities in the "open ones" and that after the war there will be much to do. Thank you for your good response to our "Easter Greetings." If you have not already responded, won't you please do so NOW! May the Lord bless you all. Sincerely yours,

FLORENCE J. MITCHELL.

YOUR PLANS FOR THE FUTURE

With an exact knowledge of the fighting strength of every country in the world and their wisdom in pitting that strength against every enemy, we might reach a conclusion as to the length of the war, the list of winners, and the final condition of every country and the people therein.

The Allies seem to be in the lead at present, but there are national leaders, broadcasters, writers and public speakers who seem to lack assurance as to the future actions of some who are united with or classed at present as "Allies." Some who seem to speak with authority or wisdom do not hesitate to tell us some "Allies" will be anything but that at the "end" of the Second World War.

For centuries past it has been a common thing to expect such a "world war" as this as the sign of the return of Christ according to promises in the Holy Word, and they tell us that this "World War" has all the signs of such a conflict, and thus we may soon expect an end of all wars!

Several situations are possible—temporary or final—at any time. Suppose that you select one of these possibilities and assure yourself that it will reach a lasting state shortly. Can you assure yourself that you are physically, mentally and spiritually fitted or prepared for the coming of such a state? Do you likewise presume to believe that every one else is likewise prepared, or would you prefer to exert an influence which might change the minds and hearts of many?

We do not hesitate to assure millions that after the Allies have won the war we will be prepared, if necessary, to assume the responsibility for their food, clothing and housing conditions. We have actually gone a long way toward establishing a world organization to see to it that living conditions return to normal or at least to safety in every country—even if it means the retaining in our own country of the point system and the very limited use of food, clothing and the necessities with which we are familiar!

Those now in authority, and believing there are vital conditions and situations to be met, have no hesitation or embarrassment in describing their proposed actions. Indeed, many of these are already in preparation or in motion, without waiting for the war to end.

Does the same organized effort apply to our own attitude toward Missionary effort, preaching the Gospel and proclaiming to the world the return of our Lord and Saviour? Are we ourselves ready for His coming or for our call to meet Him? It is possible that the end of this Second World War may leave the world in the hands of almost any nation, and they in turn may be compelled to defend their alleged rights to management or proprietorship against the attacks of other claimants.

Endless wars mean death for more and more human beings—the sending of endless thousands before their God. That is where we will all be when Christ's promises recorded in Matthew 24 are fulfilled!

The head of the Axis forces has asserted that he must yet end the days of the Jews in Europe—and in all the earth if his hordes win the war—having already slain over two millions of them and specifically claiming the death of other millions before his task is complete.

For nearly a quarter of a century our own group of Missionary-minded followers of the Lord has proclaimed the Gospel and sustained personal workers over the lands where the sword, the shot, the shell and the bomb have rained death and destruction during all this present World War. We still labor among these nations, in Europe and over all the world, and if the Lord tarries we plan for very definite relief labors and the spread of the Gospel among them "Till Jesus comes."

Will you join us in our present efforts, working under the belief that He is coming soon, or else under the knowledge that millions, both Jews and Gentiles, are yet to die by force and come before Him?

> "God sent not His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved.
> "He that believeth on Him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God."

These are Christ's own words as written in John 3:17, 18. The American-European Fellowship not only believes they are true, but plans to spread them where they are not known. The subscription blank in this issue is for your convenience, and your fellowship with us in this ministry is greatly desired!

Pray, too, for more praying and contributing friends. The spread of the Gospel over Europe, like the feeding of the starving and clothing of the naked, is a tremendous task, which belongs to the Christian people of our country. It is our commission from God in the effort to enlist as many as possible in His own armies. We may not be able to place in print at present all the things we know regarding our workers, but we have done very well on that score in past years, and will attempt it again if the Lord tarries. Meanwhile put your faith and trust in us and our work and enter into partnership with us by both prayer and gift. Thank you!

NORMAN J. SMITH.

HIS COURAGE STILL STRONG

We have in this issue another message from our Brother McGaw, still down in Southeast Africa. To grasp the meaning of its travel time and mileage one must think in terms of thousands of miles, limited shipping facilities, infrequent sailing dates and plentiful enemy torpedo boats.

Many friends still pray for the restoration of our brother's vision. Meanwhile he is praying for us all and waiting patiently for the power to take up again the pen which wrote "Praying Hyde," and which now has under way the new book, "Revelation," which Brother McGaw still hopes to complete and present for his friends to enjoy reading.

Please do not forget that our brother is in his eighty-sixth year and has filled a long and faithful Missionary career. We will be glad to receive contributions to aid in producing this book, having already received $25 for "Mr. McGaw's Book Account." Your gifts will not only make the printing of "Revelation" possible, but you will have a share in distributing the rich experiences of our brother, which will be a blessing to many and a testimony which the Lord will bless.

We take from his message to his daughter, Mrs. Branch, the following words:

> "I want to just mention your effort with Miss Florence Mitchell, of the American-European Fellowship, about publishing my book. Their consent to care for this has lifted a great burden from my heart, and I appreciate especially what you have done, offering to stand by in the whole business.
> "I cannot write much about my eyes (he has had three operations and all has been done so far that seems possible), but when God heals me I will send you a cable. I still love you all and pray for you every day and often more than once a day. Love to all your circle. Your loving old Dad.
> "FRANK A. McGAW, by L. Wall."

BROTHER McGAW'S GOOD FRIEND

There is in Nairobi, Southeast Africa, a business man—Mr. Craig, about half as old as Mr. McGaw—who must be a good friend in his condition. Mr. Craig has written to a daughter of Mr. McGaw in this country, sending encouraging news as to our brother's faith and joyful interest in life. After you read this letter you will enjoy partnership in the work of Brother McGaw with your prayers and gifts, having assurance that there is surely no spiritual blindness even at his advanced age. This letter is dated January 19 and reads as follows:—

Dear Mrs. Branch:—

I am sorry I have delayed so long in answering your letter, but have written to your brother and expect that you have have heard from him. I promised your father that I would always write to the whole family, and if the time was available would answer other correspondence. He is a well-known person and I think he could keep a private secretary going, but letters do cheer him and I hope all his friends will continue to write to him, particularly while he is in this condition.

I am sorry that I have no better news for you regarding your father's sight; he is still blind. In one's own mind you may feel very sorry for him, but if you only saw him you would be amazed. I cannot tell you how well he is in himself, or what an interest he takes in life. Only the grace of God could enable one to do and say the things he does! He never complains, and is ever praising God for His wonderful goodness. He believes that he will see again, and that he will yet return to America and work among the Jews in New York. The days of miracles are not passed, and it is possible that such a thing can still happen in God's own good time.

The Bank has notified us that a remittance of $25 has come from you; also a good sum from the American-European Fellowship. Sincerely yours,

A. M. Craig.

GOOD MEETINGS CONTINUED

Dear Miss Mitchell:

Berisso, April 30, 1943.

Last week I received my allowance which came from you through the National Bank of Argentina. We have been notified that the value has decreased, and so we received $5.00 less. We thank you very much for this help and your prayers for us.

The Lord continues blessing our work here. We had fine meetings in Buenos Aires and Berisso. Our Easter services were richly blessed. Next Sunday we will observe the Lord's Supper. We have a church meeting when different needs are brought before the congregation for decision and prayer and advice is given from the Word of God. We are so glad to tell you that the Lord hears and answers your prayers for us. We have a good attendance at every service and the Word of God is working in the hearts of the people. Many of our Russian young people are coming from Paraguay to Buenos Aires, seeking work. They come to our church, become interested, and then join. Our young people's organization is increasing constantly. Much wisdom and grace of God is needed to lead them and watch over them in Buenos Aires, where there is much temptation for them. There is a great need also in visiting work in the provinces from time to time. It becomes more difficult to visit other republics here because of the present world conditions. We are so thankful to God for the freedom which we enjoy as we preach.

May God bless you all. Very sincerely,

JOHN KOVALCHUK.

THE MISSIONARY FROM RUSSIA

"The prophet that hath a dream, let him tell a dream; and he that hath My word, let him speak My word faithfully. What is the chaff to the wheat? saith the Lord." (Jer. 23:28)

The Cruden's Concordance gives a good definition of the word dream: "By this word are to be understood those vain images which are formed in the imagination while we are asleep." (Job 20:8): "He shall fly away as a dream, and shall not be found; yea, he shall be chased away as a vision of the night." The Eastern people, and in particular the Jews, had a very great regard to dreams. They observed them, and applied them to those who pretended to explain them. We see the iniquity of this custom among the Egyptians in the history of Pharaoh's butler and baker, and in Pharaoh himself. (Genesis, chapters 40 and 41.) Nebuchadnezzar is an instance of the same among the Chaldeans. (Dan. 2:1-3) God had very expressly forbidden His people to observe dreams, and to consult those who took upon them to explain them. He condemned any one to death who pretended to have prophetic dreams, and to foretell what was to come, though what he should foretell were to come to pass, if after this he would engage the people in idolatry. (Deut. 13:1-3.) But they were not to forbid, when they thought they had any significant dream, addressing themselves to the prophets of the Lord, or to the high priest dressed in his ephod, in order to have it explained.

Wherefore in that very place, wherein God forbade the Hebrews to consult diviners, magicians and interpreters of dreams, He tells them: "The people whose land ye are going to possess consult soothsayers and diviners; but ye have not been so taught. The Lord shall raise up from the midst of you and among your brethren a prophet like unto me. Him ye shall consult and hearken to. What thing so ever I command you, observe to do it: thou shalt not add thereto, nor diminish from it." (Deut. 18:15; 12:32.)

The scripture verse above compares a mere dream with chaff—not to be relied upon. However, just now my mind runs back to Carpatho-Russia. The last week of February, 1939, I held Gospel meetings in the village in Ganichy and its vicinity, in Russia. On Saturday night we held the last meeting in a near-by village. That night I had a dream. Early on Sunday morning, about 2:30 A.M., I saw a great storm and the wind was terrific. I found myself in the midst of the storm; the wind threw me down and pushed me on the floor of the house. I prayed earnestly that God might spare my life and stop the storm. Then I saw the sky was red like fire, and I heard Mussolini and Hitler fighting against each other. I heard a voice say very distinctly: "God has confused their minds; they will destroy each other." A little later I saw the skies were clear and there was bright sunshine and great calm everywhere. I saw many people in the open air market place buying and selling, etc. The people seemed happy and contented and I was awakened. Behold, it was a dream!

"Oh, that Thou wouldest rend the heavens; that Thou wouldest come down, that the mountains might flow down at Thy presence." (Isa. 64:1). The prophet Isaiah, with sorrow in his heart, because of the great wickedness and sin of his people, cried to God with a longing heart for His visitation. "And there is none that calleth upon Thy name, that stirreth up himself to take hold of Thee: for Thou hast hid Thy face from us, and hast consumed us, because of our iniquities." (V. 7)

Is this not the perfect picture of the world today? God has permitted this terrible war because of the wickedness of men, that they might learn how impossible it is to rule without God! Oh, Church of God, stir up to take hold of this devil-blinded and deceived world!

Dear intercessors: continue to pray for my wife and child, who are still in Hungary. I haven't heard from them in some time, but I am fully trusting in God for their keeping. Pray also for me, that God's Will be done concerning my future labor for Him. (Matt. 18:19).

ALBANIAN MISSIONARY AT MOODY RALLY

Massachusetts, May, 1943.

Dear Miss Mitchell:

This must be a hurried note, for "the movers are at the door." Tomorrow morning they come, and there is an immense lot of work to be done before they come.

I was at the Rally last week, from its opening through Friday afternoon at 5. The train left at 5:30. I met Mr. Scorza, who had me work with him at the booth, and went with me to the speaking engagements he had arranged. The attendance at the Moody Missionary Rally was not up to expectations, due of course to war work and gas restriction. We trust, however, that good was accomplished for the Fellowship in contacts with the attendants.

An Albanian meeting was arranged by Paul Rado and Nicholas Lasko, at which fifty or sixty Albanians were present.

It was so good to have fellowship with these two, their families and the small group of believing friends. Brother Lasko and his wife, Jean, are looking forward to returning to Albania when the war is over. At present he is studying at the Evangelical Free Seminary, after having finished Moody Bible Institute. It looks very good.

Must close this for the time being. May God's blessing be upon your work there. Sincerely yours,

EDWIN E. JACQUES.

PRAYER IS ANSWERED!

Palestine, March 16, 1943.

Dear Mr. Smith:

Thank you for my cabled allowance. Again I am reminded of my prayer helpers. I need them and am grateful for their faithfulness. Their letters are encouraging. One is sending much needed tracts and Bible portions. Two new prayer groups are taking this work on their lists. A new church is praying for us and they have my picture at the door. A lovely handkerchief came from New Jersey to match a dress. A nurse fell ill and could not keep her pledge. In answer to prayer another gave her just the necessary amount. Another nurse prayed for some help for the Lord's work and God answered in an unexpected way.

A new Bible Class is calling me. We started last Saturday. It will mean that I will need another room or apartment and shall have to move into Tel-Aviv. The Clinic is doing good work under Dr. Juk's care and the help of Miss Dossik and her brother. God has called me to "branch out" and administer to his children. On Sunday morning some Christians met and had special prayer for my health. I feel better these last three days. This Class is one that was started years ago and their teacher has had to leave them. One of her young girls, a Hebrew Christian nurse, was crying because now she has no Christian home to go to for fellowship. She asked me to be the one to give her that home. Some of the other young people have asked me also for this home or a place to come to where they can have fellowship and have their Bible questions answered.

Rooms that were $5.00 are now $40 and they are very scarce. However, at present we are going to carry on in the school and shall move step by step as the way opens up. I was thinking of the difficulties last evening and this morning Jeremiah 33:3 was given to me. We know there is nothing too hard for Jehovah.

Sincerely in Him,
JANE T. HALEY.

WHERE THE JEWS ARE STILL FREE

Jean Rhode is still doing splendid work among the Jews in Florida. She needs your prayers as well as financial assistance. Part of an interesting letter from her reads as follows:—

> "I sent out about 300 letters to the Jewish people of this city for the Passover last week. Have also been able to contact a number of the hundreds of Jewish men in uniform here. Some are glad to receive the New Testament; others Old Testament portions of the Scriptures and leaflets. My prayers are with them when I cannot go to see them. I saw about a hundred of these dear Jewish service men in the Synagogue at one time. How earnestly they take part in the responsive readings, chants and prayers. They are still zealously seeking to establish their own righteousness and rejecting God's, but some are hungry, inquiring and open. May God help them to see their true state and need."

"Dancing Feet and an Aching Heart" is the name of the true story of Miss Rhode's life. Copies of this inspiring and thrilling tract are free for the asking. Request yours now. Your gifts meanwhile will help defray the cost of printing, as well as aid Miss Rhode in the wonderful work she is doing.

BEHIND THE DOCTOR

by

C. C. Little, Sc.D., Managing Director of the American Society for the Control of Cancer

In any Democracy the forces that stand behind the doctor are quite as important as the training and ability of the doctor himself. Among the public health movements in the United States no group has recognized this basic principle more promptly or more completely than the American Society for the Control of Cancer in conducting its nation-wide educational campaign against that disease.

In 1936 the Society organized as a practical working unit of lay people what it called the Women's Field Army Against Cancer. From the very outset it was specified that this group of lay workers in the educational field should be guided by governing bodies, the majority of whose members should be medical men or women. The Society and the Field Army are thus definitely committed to a policy of standing back of the doctor in the fight against cancer.

The wisdom of this attitude has been amply proven. Today doctors all over the United States report a constantly increasing flow of early cancer cases to their offices for diagnosis and treatment. Since the prospect of cure of cancer is directly related to the observation and treatment of the disease in its early stages, this evidence of practical value of the Women's Field Army work has convinced the medical organizations of counties and states throughout the Union that real progress can be made in the conquest of the disease.

The mutual benefits to both the patient and the profession have been great. Either group by itself could never be as strong or effective as in close cooperation with the other. Mutual confidence and respect lead to a development of the best qualities of both groups. This sort of progress will count heavily in determining the progressive advance against this disease in the years to come. We are on our way toward cancer control and both the doctor and the prospective patient can face the future certain that sympathy and understanding will continue to decrease the possibility of conflict and obstruction in the drive toward final victory.

THE TRACTS ARE STILL WORKING

Tel Aviv, Palestine, April 22, 1943
(Received May 14)

Dear Mr. Smith:

Thank you for my cabled allowance, which arrived on April 9, 1943. This morning a large bundle of tracts came from the Colportage of the Moody Bible Institute. I gave some on the bus to both Jews and Arabs. A Greek shopkeeper and an Englishman were grateful for them. How I do appreciate these tracts.

Our Bible class is going on. Three new ones came last week,—all Jews. This is a great season of the year here. It is Easter time for the Christians, Passover for the Jews and the time to celebrate Moses' burial place for the Moslems. The Moslems have erected a tomb near Jerusalem for Moses.

The country is beautiful with flowers. I am going to the Garden of Gethsemane now with some friends. Sincerely yours,

JANE HALEY.

GOOD NEWS FROM RUSSIA VIA SOUTH AMERICA

Berisso, Argentina, April 2, 1943.

Dear Miss Mitchell:

Please excuse me for not writing before this. Your so encouraging letter of February 17 and enclosed check was duly received. We thank you all very much. We were very busy this last month. Our annual conference was held in Berisso, and we had representatives from different places on our field in Argentina, Uruguay and Paraguay. The Lord blessed us wonderfully. We also had other special services in our center at Buenos Aires and other places around. We are so glad and thankful to God for His special blessings upon our feeble efforts. The Lord hears your prayers and is blessing us so wonderfully.

Another great joy in answer to all our prayers! We received a short note through our friends that our daughter and her husband in Carpathian Russia are alive and continue the missionary labor among those people in spite of all difficulty. They even had a blessed baptism service recently. The orphanage in Nerenice is still going on, though with many hardships and trials. But the children are all there. Praise the Lord! Let us continue praying and trusting that the Lord will preserve them all even during such trying times. He promises to do it in His eternal Word, and His word is certainly true and firm as nothing else. I enjoy so much reading Psalm 91 and thank Him for such promises. May His Holy Name be praised for ever and ever. With best regards, Very sincerely yours,

PRAY FOR THE MISSIONARY CANDIDATE

Dear Miss Mitchell:

Greetings to you and Brother Smith in the Name of our Blessed Lord and Saviour. Thanks for the literature received, all of it on time. I made some good contacts in Missouri, and will send you a list of places visited and Churches spoken in.

The Missionary Rally at Moody is already history. It was a very successful one. I was so glad for the visit of Brother Jacques in behalf of the Fellowship and Albania. He was a good helper at the "Booth" giving out literature, and his presence enabled me to keep an appointment out of Chicago for two evenings. He met some of the Council members, and filled in speaking appointments.

One of our Albanian friends of long standing—Nicholas Lasko—helped us quite a bit. He is studying to be a Missionary, and after the war he will be ready to go to the field. It might be well to put this "Missionary Candidate" on your prayer list and ask for funds for this purpose. He is a good worker and a spiritual leader.

I am leaving now for Philadelphia so will close for now. Yours for Victory through Christ,

A. F. SCORZA,

A NEW LABOR IN PALESTINE

Several years have passed now since Miss Jane Haley sailed from New York to help Dr. Juk in the Clinic in Palestine. During that time she has rendered excellent service and we are proud of her. She has no doubt trained many native workers to carry on our work in the Medical Mission and Free Clinic. God has now seen fit to have her leave the Clinic and minister unto this Bible Class. We pray that the Lord will bless her in this new undertaking and I am sure she goes with His Blessing of "Well done, good and faithful servant." Yes, of course, the AMERICAN-EUROPEAN FELLOWSHIP will continue her support. She is one of our Missionaries—yours and ours—and it makes little difference where she works. She is doing the work of the Lord, and I assure you Palestine is large and the need is great. Your prayers are needed as well as gifts. Please do not fail her in either one. Dr. Juk and his able assistants will continue the work of the Clinic.

GOOD NEWS FROM SWITZERLAND

This is the first message we have received from Fred Stettler this year. It is dated December 24, 1942! I imagine it has been held up on the way, because there is a rubber stamp across it: "Service Postal suspended." The ban has now been lifted (we are grateful for this!) and the card was received in the office on May 25. Brother Stettler writes:

Dear Miss Mitchell:

"I received your remittance today, and I thank you and our friends for it. We appreciate your help. The work is going along well and it has been five weeks since I started my evangelistic campaign. Recently I was able to send some help to Mrs. Manetz and John Mochar. They are so in need. But I am only able to help in the measure we are helped. It takes time to "break the red-tape." Greetings to you.

FRED STETTLER.

We appreciate this news, and ask your continued prayers. For a while we were only allowed to send $50 a month to Brother Stettler, which is not very much. But the ban has now been lifted and we are allowed to send up to $500. Of course, this may change from month to month. A few months ago it was $300, but at this writing the American Express Company is allowing $500. Please send us your gifts for these friends and their good work.

ALWAYS PRAYING

Dear Friends:

This little poem has come to my desk and I would like to share it with you—F. J. M.

("Prayer was made without ceasing"—Acts 12:15)

You need not close your eyes to pray
Nor from your work to turn away;
True pray'r is thought of God all day
Though oft in a subconscious way.

The farmer when he's making hay,
The potter busy with the clay,
The student writing his essay,
The doctor using the X-ray.

True pray'r is not in words we say—
To words alone God would say "Nay."
Our thoughts and deeds much more convey
That we are living in His way.

Through silent prayer we fear allay;
The will of God we then obey,
For by experience ev'ry day,
We know how constantly to pray.

HELP US FIGHT CANCER

160,000 Americans die of cancer annually. Authorities say many of these deaths could be avoided.

In the Metropolitan Area, address the New York City Cancer Committee, 130 East 66th Street.
